Commuters

Free egg sandwich, salads, etc.

Richmond families are invited to attend various open houses across campus to meet key University faculty and staff members and learn more about the services and programs offered to students.

Academic Skills Center

Boatwright Library. Administrative Wing, Suite 9

Families are invited to tour the Academic Skills Center. The Center assists students in understanding and learning ways to improve their cognitive skills, as well helping their complex social and personal development. Academic Skills Center staff is engaged in teaching students about the academic strengths and weaknesses, helping them develop study skills, and encourage campus and community involvement. Direct Professor N. Thomas and Associate Director Roger G. Hussain will be your hosts.

Career Services, Office of Alumni and Career Services

TMC Third Floor

It is never too early to start—and we’re here to help! Families are invited to tour Career Services in the Office of Alumni and Career Services and meet with staff to explore the programs available to Richmond students. Come ask us about our four-year plan for success, career advising, internships, career programs and networking events, off-campus recruiting, and Richmond-exclusive job and internship online search databases.

Office of International Education

Carole pooles 300 and 411

Families are invited to the Office of International Education to learn more about the University’s internationalization efforts. The Office can help answer questions about study abroad and international scholarship, international student services, international events on campus, and the Office of International Education. Please note that study abroad staff will also conduct two presentations on Richmond programs abroad, featuring Richmond study abroad students and their family. See Friday and Saturday’s schedule of events for times and locations.

Speech Center

Weinstein Hall, Rooms 309 and 401

Join your host, Director Linda B. Haughey, as you tour the Speech Center and view examples of 10 years of speech–comic performances by student consultants. The University’s Speech Center is the number one resource to students, staff, and faculty. It has become a model for other universities of what can be accomplished when administrative support, student dedication, and product use of technology all converge in pursuit of a worthy objective.

Writing Center

Boatwright Library, Room 180

Join the director, Dr. Joseph J. Essid, as you tour the Writing Center, which strives to provide instruction to University of Richmond writers at all levels of experience.
Welcome and Information Center
9 a.m.–5 p.m. • Jepson Alumni Center
Come to this virtual Jepson Alumni Center information session to learn about the student activities you can enjoy as a Jepson student. View our registration packet. You will receive your parking pass, campus map, and your orientation which serves as your ticket for events which you are pre-registered. If you pre-purchased football tickets, they may be redeemed at Will Call Committee Window Number 2, four hours prior to kickoff!

First-Year Seminars Student Conference
1:30–4:30 p.m. • Richmond’s Summer and Fall Seminars
First-Year Seminars (FYS) provide entrance students the opportunity of engaged learning through an array of seminar topics. With small classes and close contact with faculty, FYS offers a hands-on introduction to academic life and provides the models of expression that are at the heart of a liberal arts education. The FYS Student Conference awards the best studied papers and showcases the best research and artistic work done in previous FYS courses. All are welcome to attend these student presentations in the Information Center. Come see one of the exciting work done by UR students in their freshman year! Light refreshments will be served.

Family Weekend Golf Outing* ($35 per person)
10 a.m.–2 p.m. • The Crossings Golf Club
Family and friends are encouraged to join students for an afternoon of golf. This event is open to all skill levels with the fun of the day being the primary concern. Students, coaches, experts, and professional instructors will teach your golf game. Prizes will be awarded to the top 50 participants in a 4BBB scramble. Registration ends Friday, September 19 (absolutely no refunds after this date). If you have additional questions, call (804) 289-8066.
